

9th European HOPE Congress

Together for a better education of sick children and adolescents.

Preparing Pedagogues to work in a multidisciplinary team in Hospitals.

Dates, place: November 5-8, Bucharest, Romania

Topics:

Please submit your proposals under one of the following broad headings:

- Hospital School and the Education Law in different countries;
- NGO involvement in the educational and health policies;
- Continuing training (national/international) for hospital pedagogues;
- The best strategies in working with children/adolescents with different diseases;
- Involving the family as “partner” in the educational process of sick children;
- Ensuring continuity in the education of children with somatic and mental diseases;
- Increasing the role of hospital pedagogues in the multidisciplinary team;
- Education and the compliance at treatment;
- Acceptance and rejection of children with chronic and mental illnesses;
- Cooperation between hospital pedagogues and the home schools;
- NGOs and the support for disadvantaged families;
- Occupational therapy and art-therapy for sick pupils and their families;
- “Back to school!” How to make the transition easier?;
- Vocational and professional counseling.

Participants are invited to submit:

1. an abstract of around 200/350 or 500 words for:
 - a proposal for a lecture (single or panel) of 15/30 or 45 minutes;
2. an abstract of around 500/1000 words for:
 - a proposal for a workshop of 45/90 minutes with 10-15 minutes introduction by the workshop leader motivating the topic and resulting in “(a) product(s)”
3. an abstract of around 250 words for:
 - a proposal for a poster presentation or other visual presentation;

The abstract includes: Background, Purpose of Discussion/Study, Main argument/Findings and Results, Conclusions and Recommendations.

Title your abstract as: name(s)_HOPE-Bucharest_2014

Language

The Congress language will be English.

We have a new dead line. You can submit your proposal as a Word or PDF file before 3th of May, 2014 to the addresses: contact@hope2014bucharest.eu or fotinica@gmail.com

Please title your e-mail as “Call for papers, HOPE 2014”

We are looking forward to hear from you and your HOPE Congress contributions!