

Thursday, May 12th 2016

Thursday, May 12 th
Morning
9.00-9.45	Main lecture The seriously ill, non German-speaking child and its family – a multiple translating process Reinhard Topf	Ballroom Karl Rahner
9.45-10.30	Main lecture Trauma and mental illness among refugees Thomas Stompe
	Coffee break	Foyer
11.00-11.45	Main lecture Medical Anthropology, Migration and Health Ruth Kutalek	Ballroom Karl Rahner
11.45-12.45	Main lecture Overcoming language and cultural barriers through intensive cooperation of psychosocial teams of hospitals – Promoting the creative use of language Giorgio Bodrito, Simona Sartori and Elisabetta Valfrè Short presentation The Learning at Home and in the Hospital (LeHo) Project: Progress Report Michele Capurso	Ballroom Karl Rahner

Thursday, May 12 th
13.00-14.00	Lunch	Dining room
Afternoon	Short presentations parallel to workshops
14.15-15.15	Short presentations Constructing an explanation of illness with children: a sample case study of juvenile arthritis Michele Capurso (Italy) Overcoming language and cultural barriers in Hospital schools in Slovenia Tjaša Funa Čehovin (Slovenia) The integration of Roma pupils in Hospital schools in Romania Mihai Benchea and Fotinica Gliga (Romania, 30 min.)	Ballroom Karl Rahner
14.15-15.15	Workshop A3 (English) Education is every child's right – even when he or she is ill. Bednet guarantees this right through free, real-time education Els Janssens (Belgium)	Seminar room Hildegard Burjan
	Workshop B3 (English and German) Dancing - multilingual without using words Susanne Zangerl (Austria)	Seminar room Matteo Ricci
	Workshop C3 (English) Second-language acquisition – daily experiences, instruction ideas and learning materials Regina Kummetz (Austria)	Seminar room Petrus Canisius

Thursday, May 12 th
	Workshop D3 (German) Schooling for patients with diabetes mellitus Type 1 with a focus on families with a migration background Johanna Ribar-Pichler (Austria)	Seminar room H.P. Hudelist
	Workshop E3 (German) A differentiation of immigrant groups and the challenges they pose, based on the experiences of social work in paediatric oncology Brigitta Walzl (Austria)	Seminar room Dorothee Sölle
15.15-15.45	Coffee break	Foyer

Thursday, May 12 th
15.45-16.45	Short presentations parallel to workshops Short presentations Intercultural communication Katie Gramsbergen and Angela Nahon (Netherlands) Supporting interaction by non-verbal communication Piia Ruutu (Finland) Photography as a means of communication and expression Riitta Launis (Finland) A warm welcome for foreign children - A multidisciplinary approach and evaluation of the Monza experience Angela Passoni, Ilaria Ripamonte und Flavia Tarquini (Italy)	Ballroom Karl Rahner
	Workshop A4 (English) Promoting the creative use of language: Storytelling, Poetry and Philosophy for all ages Danielle Valder (United Kingdom)	Seminar room Hildegard Burjan
	Workshop B4 (English and German) Dancing - multilingual without using words Susanne Zangerl (Austria)	Seminarraum Matteo Ricci

Thursday, May 12 th
	Workshop C4 (German) Second-language acquisition – daily experiences, instruction ideas and learning materials Regina Kummetz (Austria)	Seminar room Petrus Canisius
	Workshop D4 (German) Schooling for patients with diabetes mellitus Type 1 with a focus on families with a migration background Johanna Ribar-Pichler (Austria)	Seminar room H.P. Hudelist
	Workshop E4 (German) A differentiation of immigrant groups and the challenges they pose, based on the experiences of social work in paediatric oncology Brigitta Walzl (Austria)	Seminar room Dorothee Sölle
Evening
19.00	Evening Buffet(Only for guests with a prepaid reservation)

back